

GAMING MACHINES REGULATIONS 2005
Regulation 10

NOTICE OF EXEMPTION BY THE MINISTER FOR BUSINESS SERVICES AND CONSUMERS (TRAINING)

The Australian Hotels Association, South Australian Branch wishes to provide a training course, or training courses, at places throughout South Australia, including licensed premises, in relation to the operation of gaming machines and responsible gambling for persons who are, or are to be, employed in the gaming machine industry.

Carrying out of prescribed duties by students at licensed gaming venues would constitute an infringement of the Gaming Machines Act 1992 (the Act).

Notice

PURSUANT to regulation 10 of the Gaming Machine Regulations 2005, I, the Minister for Business Services and Consumers -

1. Grant to the following persons or bodies an exemption from Section 45 of the Act (Offence of being unlicensed):
  - (a) The Australian Hotels Association, South Australian Branch
2. Declare that:
  - (a) the exemption of The Australian Hotels Association, South Australian Branch under clause 1 has effect only in respect of providing a training course or training courses at places throughout South Australia, in relation to the operation of gaming machines and responsible gambling to persons who are, or are to be, employed in the gaming machine industry.
3. Declare that the exemption of The Australian Hotels Association, South Australian Branch under clause 1 is subject to the following condition:
  - (a) The Australian Hotels Association, South Australian Branch must not suffer or permit any person to retain any winnings that might arise out of the operation of a gaming machine during a course.

4. In respect of the conduct of training at licensed premises, grant to the following persons or bodies an exemption from Section 49 of the Act (Offence relating to employment in gaming area):
  - (a) An employee of The Australian Hotels Association, South Australian Branch;
  - (b) A student of The Australian Hotels Association, South Australian Branch; and
  - (c) The holder of a gaming machine licence.
- 4a. Declare that the exemption of employees and students of The Australian Hotels Association, South Australian Branch under clause 4 are subject to the following conditions:
  - (a) Employees and students of The Australian Hotels Association, South Australian Branch will only be exempt during such periods when The Australian Hotels Association, South Australian Branch is conducting a recognised training course; and
  - (b) Employees and students of The Australian Hotels Association, South Australian Branch will only operate gaming machines as part of a recognised training course; and
  - (c) The Australian Hotels Association, South Australian Branch must not suffer or permit any person to retain any winnings that might arise out of the operation of a gaming machine during a recognised training course; and
  - (d) All prescribed duties carried out by students will be for training purposes only.
5. Declare that the exemption of the licensee of the venue where live training is to be conducted is subject to the following conditions:
  - (a) The licensee of the venue where live training is conducted will only be exempt during such periods when The Australian Hotels Association, South Australian Branch is conducting a recognised training course.

Dated this 18th day of February 2013

.....
The Hon. John Rau, MP
Minister for Business Services and Consumers