GAMING MACHINES REGULATIONS 2005: REGULATION 10

NOTICE OF EXEMPTION BY THE MINISTER FOR BUSINESS SERVICES AND CONSUMERS

(Holders of a Gaming Machine Service Licence and Approved Gaming Machine Technicians)

Preamble

1. Until 1 July 2006, the State Supply Board was the sole holder of a gaming machine service licence under the Gaming Machines Act 1992 (the Act). An exemption was issued by the Treasurer on 17 June 1993, pursuant to Regulation 10(3) to exempt an approved service agent of the State Supply Board, their approved employee or subcontractor and an approved employee of an approved subcontractor from the operation of Section 45 of the Act (Offence of being unlicensed) and Section 64 of the Act (Sealing of gaming machines). The effect of the exemption was to enable approved agents to carry out work in relation to gaming machines on behalf of the State Supply Board. The State Supply Board no longer exists, and there are now a number of new holders of gaming machine service licences.

2. In July 2006 several gaming machine service licences were issued to other entities. Also at that time, Section 38B was inserted into the Act to enable the Commissioner to approve a natural person as a gaming machine technician for the holder of the gaming machine service licence.

3. Section 64 of the Act has been subsequently amended to allow gaming machine technicians to seal, or break a seal of, a gaming machine.

4. Whilst the effect of Section 38B is that it is now not necessary to exempt particular persons other than the gaming machine service licence holder to install, service or repair approved gaming machines, there is some uncertainty about whether the service licence holder and the approved gaming machine technician may have possession of the gaming machine temporarily for the purposes of service or repair, or immediately prior to installation, at premises other than licensed premises, and thus not contravene Section 45.

5. Therefore, to the extent that it is necessary to do so, this exemption is being granted to clearly allow for gaming machine service licence holders and approved gaming machine technicians to have temporary possession of approved gaming machines for the purpose of service or repair of those gaming machines, or immediately prior to installation, at premises other than licensed premises.

NOTICE

PURSUANT to Regulation 10 of the Gaming Machines Regulations 2005, I, the Minister for Business Services and Consumers:

1. Grant to the following persons an exemption from Section 45 (offence of being unlicensed) and Section 50 (offence related to personal performance of work on gaming machines) of the Act:

- (a) the holder of a gaming machine service licence, and
- (b) an approved gaming machine technician.

2. Declare that the exemption under Clause 1 has effect only in respect of:

- (a) the possession of a gaming machine by an exempted holder of a gaming machine service licence or gaming machine technician, on his or her business premises, for the purposes of its service or repair;
- (b) the possession of a gaming machine by an exempted holder of a gaming machine service licence or gaming machine technician, on his or her business premises, on a temporary basis prior to its installation.

Dated 21 January 2012.

JOHN RAU, Minister for Business Services and Consumers
